

The Wakulla County Board of County Commissioners is pleased to announce that the restroom facilities at Azalea Park, recently damaged by the heavy winds of Tropical Storm Fay, are fully operational. Azalea Park is a County-owned park located in the heart of Crawfordville. We encourage you to come out and take advantage of this beautiful fall weather and enjoy the park and its amenities. Thanks to the Parks and Recreation Department for overseeing this project.